

Summary Curriculum Vitae of Professor Ali Ghoz
MB BCh MSc (Oxon) FRCS (T&O) MRCS(Eng) MRCS(Ed)
Consultant Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgeon

Professor Ali Ghoz is a Consultant Trauma & Orthopaedic Surgeon specialising in Hip and Knee surgery. Professor Ghoz has extensive experience in trauma, a special interest in revision hip & knee surgery, as well as extensive experience in primary hip replacement, muscle sparing anterior hip replacement, hip resurfacing arthroplasty, partial knee replacement, total knee replacement, computer aided surgery and knee arthroscopic surgery, and soft tissue knee reconstruction surgery.

Professor Ghoz consults at Wimpole Street, London, The Spire Dunedin Hospital Reading and the Berkshire Independent Hospital, Reading. Professor Ghoz is a Visiting Professor in Trauma and Orthopaedic Surgery at the University Hospitals of Moldova. Professor Ghoz completed his basic surgical training at the Yorkshire School of Surgery progressing to a National Training Number for Specialist Registrar training at the Yorkshire Deanery. He obtained his FRCS in Trauma and Orthopaedics in 2011. Professor Ghoz also holds a Masters of Science from Oxford University specialising in Musculoskeletal Sciences.

In 2013, Professor Ghoz completed a Fellowship in Adult Hip and Knee Reconstructive surgery at the Royal Berkshire Hospital in Reading. In 2014, Professor Ghoz completed the Australian Orthopaedic Association accredited Adult Hip/Knee Arthroplasty, Knee Arthroscopy & Sports Medicine Fellowship at the Prince of Wales Hospital, Sydney. Professor Ghoz published numerous peer-reviewed research papers in the field of Hip and Knee surgery and has presented his work at numerous national and international meetings. Professor Ghoz is a reviewer on the British Bone and Joint Journal and is an Advanced Trauma Life Support (ATLS) Instructor. He is a medical student examiner and teaches on international courses, including the prestigious Oxford University Miller Orthopaedic Review course. He is an educational supervisor for the foundation doctors in Orthopaedics. Professor Ghoz has global operating experience including work in Eastern Europe, Middle East and Asia, besides the UK.

Professor Ghoz is a qualified Medicolegal expert witness and has completed in excess of 200 Medicolegal reports to date.